

COL. McCABE ATTENDS MEETING OF SIGNERS

Is National President of Association of Declaration of Independence Descendants.

BOUNDS-FOSTER WEDDING

Ceremony Takes Place at Hanover Avenue Christian Church—Mrs. Sampson Is Hostess at Westwood Reception.

Colonel W. Gordon McCabe left the city yesterday evening for New York, where he will preside to-day over the board of governors of the Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, of which society he is the national president. The meeting will take place in the Waldorf Astoria.

BOUNDS-FOSTER

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Cleveland Foster and Clayton Purnell Bounds was quietly celebrated on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Hanover Avenue Christian Church, with Rev. G. W. Kemper officiating. The church was decorated in palms and lighted candles, and Dr. Jacob Reinhardt was organist and Mrs. G. Watson James, Jr., of New York, played the "Evening Star" from Tannhauser very softly during the ceremony. The bride wore a wedding dress of white duchess satin finished in silver and tulle trimmings. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley, and her veil of illusion, which was fastened with orange blossoms, fell from a Juliet cap of real lace. Mrs. Andrew Jackson Brent was the bride's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a white satin gown, trimmed in tulle and chiffon, and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bounds left later for a Southern honeymoon, which will include Florida and other points of interest, and after May 1 will be at home in Weldon, N. C. The bride traveled in a smart blue tulle costume, with a hat to match. The wedding was a very quiet affair, and only the families of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony.

Mrs. Sampson Hostess

Mrs. John Russell Sampson, of Charlottesville, who has been living for some months at "Westwood," Ginter Park, gave an informal reception yesterday afternoon for her guests, Miss Helen Irvin and Miss Mary Van Arsdale Longue, of Baltimore, and Miss Merle Sampson, her daughter, all collegemates at Bryn Mawr College. Mrs. Sampson has recently been added to the faculty of the Bible Training School which is growing up beside the seminary.

Metcalfe-Hughes

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee Hughes, 314 North Park Street, a quiet but pretty marriage took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Marian Virginia, was married to Wayne Carr Metcalfe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. James, D. D., in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dark blue tulle dress, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Jessie Peterson, of Albemarle, N. C., the maid of honor, wore a gown of old rose silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. W. F. Metcalfe, brother of the groom, was best man. The other attendants were Miss Lella May Perrin, in old-fashioned champagne, and Dorothy Jones. The party was decorated with palms and the lights were in pink. Local music was rendered by Miss Lillian Bowman.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe left for Northern tour. On their return they will make their home at 214 North Park Street.

Recent Announcements

An interesting engagement which has just been announced is that of Miss Dorothy Margaret Loughridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Loughridge, of Louisiana, and Eastern W. field speaks, of Lexington, Ky. The marriage will take place in June. Miss Loughridge is a niece of Mrs. Richard B. B. Chew, of Washington, and Mr. Loughridge is a first cousin of Mrs. William Bolling, wife of Dr. George E. Bolling, of Lexington. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Lowenberg have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Lucille May, to Monroe Lederer Hardach, of New York City. A reception will be given on Sunday evening, April 23, at "Leomont," Norfolk.

Freeman-Edwards

Miss Janet L. Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Freeman, of Stony Creek, Va., and Clarence Bland Edwards, of Washington, D. C., were married Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Stony Creek Methodist Church by Rev. George E. Booker, of Lynchburg. The ceremony took place before a bank of Southern smilax, and the church was decorated with palms, ferns and flowers. The bride wore white silk and a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and was attended by Mrs. G. S. Field, of Coates, N. C., matron of honor, a cousin of the bride. Mrs. Field wore pink tulle and carried Easter lilies. Miss Anne Perkins, of Newport News, was maid of honor. She wore pink crepe and carried Easter lilies. The bridesmaids were Miss Eva Eppes, Miss Lulu Eppes, Miss Nellie Lee and Miss Mildred Edwards, of Kingston, R. I., sister of the bridegroom. Philip E. Freeman, brother of the bride, was best man. Miss Margaret Braswell, of Whitakers, N. C., played a violin solo preceding the ceremony, and officiated at the organ.

The ceremony was attended by a wide circle of friends of the bride in Sussex County, Petersburg and other cities near-by. The bridegroom is the son of President Howard Edwards, of Rhode Island State College, at Kingston, and is employed in the agricultural branch of the government service.

Mr. and Mrs. James David Hitt were recent visitors to Asheville, N. C., having spent the week-end at the Grove Park Inn.

Miss Blanche Kidd, of Richmond, is the guest of friends in Portsmouth this week.

Miss Hartness Sutton, who has been spending the winter months near Rawley Springs, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. H. C. Hano, of Philadelphia, is spending several weeks with her father, A. Eichel, at 407 West Grace Street.

Miss Lillie Donahoe, who has been spending some time in Portsmouth, has returned to Richmond, accompanied by Miss Inez Riley.

WOMEN'S MEETINGS.

The James River Garden Club will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. John Skelton Williams, at "Paxton," on the Cary Street Road. The meeting is set for Tuesday, instead of the regular day for meeting, on account of Holy Week and Easter holiday. Each member is asked to bring to this session 1 specimen of everything in bloom in her garden, carefully labeled with its botanical name.

HOW TO BE SLIM

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, don't starve and weaken your system, or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to Tragle Drug Co. or any good druggist, and get a box of Oil of Koroim capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body.

It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince you that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.

WARNS TOURISTS AWAY

Fredericksburg and Richmond Cut Off by Impassable Road in Stafford County.

The Automobile Blue Book Publishing Company has written that it is warning a number of inquirers not to attempt the road between Washington and Richmond, owing to the bad strip existing between Garrisonville and Occoquan. The company also states that a number of tourists who have attempted to drive southward over this stretch have been obliged to abandon the trip and ship their cars. The company states that this is a logical road for traffic from the North to the South, and vice versa, and asks if some permanent road cannot be constructed. The Richmond Automobile Club is at this time attempting to raise $10,000 by the sale of buttons, with the object of building a permanent road over this bad section.

GOES UP IN AEROPLANE

Captain Shipp Visits Curtiss School at Newport News and Makes His First Flight.

Captain Arthur M. Shipp, United States Army, who has just returned from the Curtis Aviation School, in Norfolk, had his first ride while down there in an aeroplane. He took the ride with an old soldier-friend, Victor Vernon, head instructor in the school. Captain Shipp stated that he was no more nervous than if he had been riding in an automobile. He stated that he knew Mr. Vernon was a capable and careful pilot, and that he had no misgivings.

MAY ATTEND REUNION

Cadets of Virginia Military Institute Anxious to Go to Birmingham.

The cadets of the Virginia Military Institute want to attend the Confederate Reunion in Birmingham, stated General E. W. Nichols, superintendent of the institute yesterday while passing through Richmond. The cadets have been offered a prominent position in the line of march, and are anxious to attend. There are 381 members of the corps. The cadets of Virginia Military Institute are in fine condition, and would without doubt make a fine showing. Captain S. J. Schindel, United States Army, who recently reviewed the corps, stated that it was a fine body of young men.
